

Family Faith at Home

Make Sunday Come Alive All Week!

The Department of Youth Faith Formation wants to support you and your whole family during this difficult time in our world. Each week we will be sending out this resource which can help you reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings with your entire family.

Here are some ideas on how to use this resource:

- Consider reading one of the mass readings each evening.
- Do the discussion of the Gospel questions after dinner one night.
- Watch the video on a different night. Formed.org is graciously offering free access to our Archdiocese during this time. If you do not already have access, you can sign up here.
- Pray the prayer each evening.

Second Sunday of Easter-Divine Mercy Sunday

Mass Readings:

Acts 2: 42-47

Psalm 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24

1 Peter 1: 3-9

John 20-19-31

Readings can also be found at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Discuss

Read the Gospel and then discuss as a family:

1. What happened in this reading?
2. Is there anything we believe without seeing?
3. Is Thomas's doubt reasonable—does it make sense?
4. How does Jesus respond to Thomas?
5. Where do you see Jesus working in our world without seeing him physically?

In April 2000, St. Pope John Paul II canonize St. Faustina Kowalska and designated the first Sunday after Easter to be the Divine Mercy Sunday. "Jesus said to St. Faustina one day: 'Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy.' Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity."

Pray

Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

You can download a copy of the chaplet here or pray it in song with Steve Angrisano here.

Do

The image of the Divine Mercy shows two rays of light, red and white, streaming from the pierced side of Jesus. Often it has the words, "Jesus, I trust in you." This week, make your own image of the Divine Mercy. Be creative, draw, color, do a mosaic, make it realistic or abstract. Then, each night in your prayer, ask God to increase your ability to trust in Him.

Department of Youth Faith Formation

The Department of Youth Faith Formation encompasses the Catechetical Office and Office of Youth Ministry. Collaboratively, these offices work with parishes and parish leaders to support their efforts to help young people (grades Pre-K to 12) and their families encounter Christ and grow in their Catholic faith. The Department provides training, resources, consultation, networking and events.
